Be sure to read and initial below.

Please be Aware: It is important that someone be available to take delivery and put frozen fish into a refrigerator or freezer. All overnight packages are sent with a signature release. If no one is available to take delivery, the shipment will be left at the door to prevent a return to the FedEx office as they do not offer temperature control. FedEx will automatically notify you via email when your package ships. Credit card payments will be processed as orders are shipped. Initial here:
